

If you DO NOT have a street address because you use a rural route address or you are homeless, describe where you live.

